

Prayer Focus

According to the scriptures, we are all called to pray. However, as intercessors, our calling is to hear from the Holy Spirit how we ought to pray concerning the times and seasons in which we are living.

The holiday season brings with it both joys and challenges to so many people. We believe the Holy Spirit would have us focus our prayers on the following:

- Bring forth labors to bring in the harvest
- Remember the needs of the homeless, hopeless, hungry, destitute, depressed, etc.
- Remember those without families.
- Pray for those who have families that need to be reconciled.
- Pray for God to bring exposure to the plans of the enemy in regards to drug and sex-trafficking against young children, especially girls.
